

Candidate Code of Conduct

The following is Origami Risk's Certification Code of Conduct for candidates:

Integrity and Honesty:

Candidates must maintain the highest standards of integrity and honesty throughout the examination process. Any form of cheating, dishonesty, or unethical behavior will not be tolerated.

Personal Responsibility:

Each candidate is personally responsible for their conduct during the examination. This includes refraining from seeking or providing unauthorized assistance, using prohibited materials or resources, or engaging in any behavior that undermines the fairness and integrity of the examination.

Respect for Examination Procedures:

Candidates must adhere strictly to all examination procedures and instructions provided. Failure to follow these procedures may result in disciplinary action, including disqualification from the examination.

Confidentiality:

Candidates must maintain the confidentiality of all examination materials and content. This includes refraining from discussing or disclosing any details about the examination, questions, or answers with others.

Technology Usage:

Candidates must use only authorized technology and equipment during the examination. Any attempt to manipulate or misuse technology for the purpose of gaining an unfair advantage will be considered a violation of the code of conduct.

Compliance with Policies:

Candidates must comply with all applicable policies and regulations governing the examination process. This includes but is not limited to policies related to identification, registration, and examination security.

Reporting Violations:

Candidates who observe or suspect any violations of the code of conduct are encouraged to report them to Origami Risk promptly at learningcenter@origamirisk.com.

Consequences of Violations:

Violations of the code of conduct may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to disqualification from the examination, invalidation of scores, and suspension or revocation of certification.
